

RECOGNIZING THE 150TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE CITY OF CONCORD

HON. MARK DeSAULNIER

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, July 3, 2018

Mr. DESAULNIER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to recognize the 150th anniversary of the founding of the City of Concord, California.

The history of Concord begins with the Miwok people, Californian Native Americans who inhabited areas of North-Central California. Originally founded as the community of Todos Santos by Salvio Pacheco, the name was soon changed to Concord by the city's residents. During its early years, Concord thrived as an agricultural community, first having many vineyards which gave way to walnut orchards as a result of prohibition.

One of Concord's most significant drivers has been the Concord Naval Weapons Station (CNWS), a military base established in 1942. The station functioned as a World War II armament storage depot, supplying ships at Port Chicago. CNWS continued to support war efforts during the Korean War, the Vietnam War and the Gulf War, processing and shipping thousands of tons of materiel out across the Pacific Ocean.

A portion of CNWS has since been closed and is scheduled to be transferred to the City for a residential and commercial development while reserving approximately two-thirds for open-space and parks projects. The site is also home to the GoMentum Station proving groups, which is used to test self-driving cars. CNWS is helping to keep Concord evolving and an attractive location for Bay Area residents.

Today, Concord's classic old downtown has a multi-story skyline and it is now the largest city in Contra Costa County.

As a longtime resident of Concord and someone who has represented it in the city, county, state, and federal government, I am grateful to represent such a diverse city and extend my congratulations on its 150th anniversary.

TRIBUTE TO MR. JOHN FOREMAN

HON. RODNEY DAVIS

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, July 3, 2018

Mr. RODNEY DAVIS of Illinois. Mr. Speaker, I rise along with my colleague Rep. SHIMKUS, to honor John Foreman, longtime editor of the News-Gazette who tragically passed away over the weekend.

John graduated from Atwood-Hammond High School in 1970 and first joined the newspaper after graduating from the University of Illinois in 1977. He was a part-time weekend reporter, and eventually made his way to editor-in-chief by 1986. In 2003, John was made publisher of his hometown newspaper.

John loved everything about working at the News-Gazette. He loved local journalism and knew better than anyone the importance of the relationship between a community and its newspaper. To many, he embodied the spirit of everything the News-Gazette stands for.

John was widely-respected in his career as an established journalist and a fierce advocate for the freedom of the press. He dedicated his professional life to protecting this First Amendment right and held several leadership roles in organizations like the Illinois Press Association, the Illinois Associated Press Editors, Mid-America Press Institute and many more. He was the first recipient of the James C. Craven Award for Freedom of the Press from the Illinois Press Association and he was also named Illinois Journalist of the Year in 2006.

He was both a mentor and friend to us, and many at the News-Gazette, and his absence will not go unnoticed.

We extend our deepest condolences to his wife Sharon, his News-Gazette family and all those who knew John. He was a valued member of the Champaign-Urbana community and will be truly missed.

A TRIBUTE TO LOIS FIGGINS

HON. DAVID YOUNG

OF IOWA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, July 3, 2018

Mr. YOUNG of Iowa. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize and congratulate Lois Figgins of Atlantic, Iowa who recently retired after 50 years of service within the banking industry. Lois began her banking career in 1964. She started working at First Whitney Bank and completed her career at TS Bank in Atlantic. She had a hiatus from work at the bank when she lived overseas when her husband was serving in the military.

Lois said she has seen many changes at the bank over the years. When she started working, everything was done on paper; there were no computers. Lois has worked in many different aspects of the banking industry, including bookkeeper, teller, assistant cashier, secretary of the installment loan department and most recently as the Credit Administrative Assistant for TS Bank in Atlantic. Lois said her favorite part of her job was waiting on the customers and greeting them as they came in the door. She said she is, "grateful for the time she has spent in the banking industry, especially the last few years at TS Bank." Lois is active at Zion Lutheran Church, Relay for Life and a sewing group called, "The Knotty Ladies."

Mr. Speaker, Lois Figgins has made a difference by helping and serving others. It is with great honor that I recognize her today. I know that my colleagues in the House of Representatives join me in applauding her accomplishments. I thank her for her service to TS Bank and Southwest Iowa, and wish her continued success in the future.
